ABOUT US

APASI was established in August 2001 as the sole distributor of the Nordson Hotmelt and Finishing product range from the USA. By 2005, APASI expanded its product line and also became the sole distributor of the Leibinger Inkjet Printer from Germany. Since then, APASI has continuously broadened its array of offerings from various parts of the world, resulting in an expanded market and customer base. From its inception to the present day, APASI has maintained a singular goal:

To represent and distribute only reliable and quality-proven products from well-established global companies.
